Memo. No. 2027 /Covid/2021

Dated 04.09.2021

Sub:- 100% vaccination of all teaching and non-teaching staff and students above the age of 18 years in all Educational Institutions in the State- Reg.

Ref:- Memo.No.3724/SE.Prog.II/A1/2021 of Education Dept., dt. 24.08.2021.

In reference cited, instructions have been issued for reopening all educational institutions in the state from 1st September 2021.

2. In order to control the possibility of covid infections, apart from the usual covid appropriate protocols which have to be followed, the following directions are issued for 100% vaccination of staff members and students above the age of 18 years in all educational institutions in the state (both government and private):

- i. Teaching and non-teaching staff of all educational institutions in the state shall be 100% vaccinated.
- ii. All students above the age of 18 years shall also be vaccinated.
- iii. Each educational institution where all staff and students aged 18 years and above age have been vaccinated shall be declared as 100% covid vaccinated by the head of the institution.
- iv. All 100% vaccinated institutions shall display a banner to that effect in a prominent location in the institution. A small function may be held in the educational institution to mark the event.
- v. The headmaster/principal/heads of educational institution concerned shall coordinate with local PHC Medical Officer to ensure 100% vaccination of their staff and eligible students.
- vi. Collectors shall ensure that all staff and eligible students in educational institutions in their districts are 100% vaccinated as per above instructions by 10th September 2021.
- vii. The respective Heads of Departments shall closely review progress in the matter through their district heads and compile daily progress report in format at Annexure.
