Memo.No.1028/CS-I-CCS/2020

Sub:- CAF&CS Department – Covid-19 - Proposal of the Commissioner of School Education Department to safe guard the unutilized Rice under Mid Day Meals Scheme available in Schools and hostels at the stock points of Civil Supplies Corporation, till re-opening of schools - Instructions issued - Regarding.

-o0o-

The attention of the Commissioner of School Education, Telangana, Hyderabad is invited to the reference 1st cited. The Vice Chairman & Managing Director, Telangana State Civil Supplies Corporation Ltd. & the Commissioner of Civil Supplies, T.S., Hyderabad vide reference 2nd and 3rd cited above have reported that the proposal of the School Education Department to store the un-utilized stocks available at schools and hostels in the stock points of the Telangana Civil Supplies Corporation is not viable, since there would be a possibility of getting infestation to their stocks and which will damage the regular stock of Civil Supplies Corporation (i.e. PDS rice), transit loss, storage losses, scarcity of storage space for separate stocking and accountancy problems and also additional expenditure required for transportation, handling and fumigation charges etc.

2. In this regard, the Commissioner of Civil Supplies, T.S., Hyderabad has therefore requested the Government for issue instructions to take necessary measures to preserve their stocks (Sannabiyam) available at Schools and Hostels at their level by taking technical expertise advise (OR) to dispose at District administration level.

3. After careful examination of the matter, Government hereby instruct the Commissioner of School Education and the HODs of Welfare Institutions / Hostels for issue suitable instructions to all the In-charge of Schools /Hostels / Institutions to take necessary measures at their level to preserve the stocks available with them in-consultation with any technical expertise (OR) to dispose at the District Administration level.
